

Saina Nehwal thanks fans after officially becoming World No. 1

Thursday, April 2, 2015

New Delhi: As the Badminton World Federation (BWF) released its latest Rankings on Thursday where ace India shuttler Saina Nehwal officially became the World No. 1, she thanked all her fans for their support.

Saina has now officially become the first Woman Badminton player of India to be ranked number one in the world. She is the second Indian player to achieve this feat, after legendary Prakash Padukone.

The Hyderabadadi tweeted a pic on social micro-blogging site Twitter thanking her fans.

"Officially World Number 1 today in the BWF Rankings very very very very very very very happy thank u all for the support." @ NSaina
