Hyderabad: Olympic Silver Medallist P V Sindhu arrived home, at the Hyderabad International Airport, on Monday to a grand welcome gala. Amid scenes of jubilation and loud cheers from scores of people, Sindhu, accompanied by Coach Pullela Gopichand, was greeted by her parents – P V Ramana and P Vijaya – alongside top politicians, who jostled to shower the Olympian with flowers, present her with shawls and click selfies with the first Indian woman to win a silver medal at the Games.
